

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 2

HUMAN EVENTS
10 December 1983

Capital Briefs.

★ A top KGB defector said last week that more than a third of the Soviet-bloc nationals attached to the U.N. Secretariat are "officers of their respective secret police." Sanislav Levchenko, who defected to the U.S. in 1979, made the charge in a lengthy Heritage Foundation analysis written with Dr. Juliana Pilon.